WESTERN WOMEN PROFESSIONAL BOWLERS

HISTORY

The need for women's competitive bowling events surfaced as early as 1965 when the Western Women Bowlers was created. This new organization required membership applicants to be at least 18 years of age, be in good standing with WIBC, and carry a book average or current league average of 170 or better.

The first WWB tournament was staged at Fresno's Mid State Bowl in January, 1966. Pasadena's Joni McKenzie was crowned the first WWB champion. With impressive scores posted in bowling publications, the WWB gained much respect and thrived as several bowling establishments eagerly waited to host future tournaments. The Pro-ams became very popular as league bowlers enthusiastically signed up.

In 1967 Walt Stuetz joined the WWB as Tournament Administrator. Over the years Walt's dedication and remarkable service has helped make the organization what it is today.

With increasing competition and popularity, it became time in 1975 to change our name to Western Women Professional Bowlers. In 1981, the WWPB's first live television telecast aired from Eagle 1 Bowl in San Marcos, California. The event was co-sponsored by Miller Lite Beer, Mazda, and AMF.

Through the years the WWPB has crowned many deserving champions and continues to offer competitive women the chance to showcase their bowling talent.

1997 WWPB BOWLER OF THE YEAR

SHARON ARONSON

The setting was at the New Yorba Linda Bowl on March 14, just before the second block of qualifying began, when the Western Women Professional Bowlers announced their recipient for the 1997 Bowler of the Year, Sharon Aronson of Chino Hills, Calif.

Mrs. Aronson joined the WWPB in 1989, and received that year's Rookie of the Year Award.

The 38-year old kegler has always been a tough competitor, a familiar face in most finals during the years gone by.

1997 was no exception. Bowling in six tournaments, she made the finals in all, winning two of those events. Her first title came in February, in Bakersfield, and her second championship came in October at Vista Entertainment Center.

Along the way, she earned points by having the tournament high game at Hemet in the mixed doubles and another at Vista. Then at Mission Hills Bowl, she added more points for high game and series.

Additional points were earned by topping the Top-Twenty Average List with her 214.48 for 160 games.

Though no points are awarded, she led our Top-Twenty Money Earned.

Sharon and her husband, Paul, have a six-year old daughter, Laura.

Paul, who owns a printing business in Placentia, could not be on hand for the presentation, but Sharon thanks her "best friend," for all the support he had given her in her bowling endeavors.

Mrs. Aronson is well admired and respected by her peers and well deserves the honor of the 1997 WWPB Bowler of the Year Award.

1997 WWPB ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

JULIE SUMMERS

Just prior to the announcement of the Bowler of the Year, the 1997 Western Women Professional Bowlers Rookie of the Year Award was presented to Julie Summers of Highland, Calif., in front of her special friend, Joe, her peers and many friends from the Citrus Belt Women's Bowling Association.

The single 36-year old, who works for the San Bernardino County Tax Collector, has only bowled for seven years.

Ms. Summers had guested prior to joining the WWPB for her first event as a professional in April.

Participating in six tournaments, she made the finals in two. Finishing 10th at Empire Bowl in June, where she also earned points for the tournament high game. The other was in October at Vista Entertainment Center where she finished 15th.

Julie also placed herself on the Top-Twenty High Five High Average List, earning additional points for 19th place by averaging 195.52 for 100 games.

Winning the title of Rookie of the Year is just the beginning for this talented lady. Her future with the WWPB looks bright and full of many awards to come.
