WESTERN WOMEN PROFESSIONAL BOWLERS

HISTORY

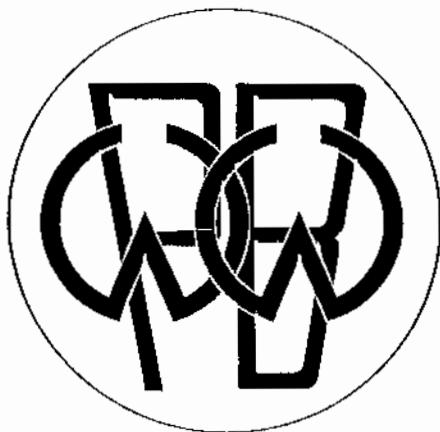

The need for women's competitive bowling events surfaced as early as 1965 when the Western Women Bowlers was created. This new organization required membership applicants to be at least 18 years of age, be in good standing with WIBC, and carry a book average or current league average of 170 or better.

The first WWB tournament was staged at Fresno's Mid State Bowl in January, 1966. Pasadena's Joni McKenzie was crowned the first WWB champion. With impressive scores posted in bowling publications, the WWB gained much respect and thrived as several bowling establishments eagerly waited to host future tournaments. The Pro-ams became very popular as league bowlers enthusiastically signed up.

In 1967 Walt Stuetz joined the WWB as Tournament Administrator. Over the years Walt's dedication and remarkable service has helped make the organization what it is today.

With increasing competition and popularity, it became time in 1975 to change our name to Western Women Professional Bowlers. In 1981, the WWPB's first live television telecast aired from Eagle 1 Bowl in San Marcos, California. The event was co-sponsored by Miller Lite Beer, Mazda, and AMF.

Through the years the WWPB has crowned many deserving champions and continues to offer competitive women the chance to showcase their bowling talent.

1998 WWPB CO-BOWLERS OF THE YEAR

Jennifer Barron and Sharon Aronson

Selection of a Bowler of the Year is primarily determined by a member who has accumulated the greatest point total through WWPB Tournament participation performances.

Between these two ladies, Jennifer Barron and Sharon Aronson, their total points were too close to separate. The only fair thing was to award Co-Bowlers of the Year for 1998.

Jennifer Barron, the 27-year old southpaw from Encino, joined the WWPB in January 1994, and made her presence known by winning her first title just one year later.

1998 was no exception. Bowling in all ten tournaments, she made the finals in six, winning her fifth career WWPB title in July at AMF Bowlerland in Van Nuys.

Additional points were earned by a 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 10th place finish. She had a couple of high games and one high 5-game block in qualifying.

Jennifer added more points by placing second of the Top-Twenty Average List with 212.43 for 194 games.

Miss Barron, who is employed by SBS Trust Deed as a foreclosure officer, has five, 300 games and an 823 high series record. She was also named to the Southern California Bowling Writers 1998 All Star Team.

Equally deserving, Co-Bowler of the Year is Sharon Aronson, who is no stranger to this honor, as she was the sole recipient for 1997.

The 39-year old homemaker lives in Chino Hills with her husband Paul, and their seven-year old daughter, Laura.

Competing in nine of the ten WWPB events, she made the finals in six. The first tournament of the year at Yorba Linda Bowl, Sharon came out on top, winning her third career WWPB championship.

Along the way, she had two, 3rd place finishes, a 4th, and two, 7th places, and was the alternate at AMF Friendly Hills Lanes. Additional points were earned by having two high qualifying games and one high 5-game block. Sharon led the Top-Twenty Average List with 213.97 for 182 games.

Though no points are awarded, other honors for Mrs. Aronson was by winning the 1998 California Queens Tournament, which included her personal high series of 804. She has also recorded five, 300 games. And last July, was placed on the Southern California Bowling Writers All Star Team, and was named their 1998 Woman Bowler of the Year.

1998 WWPB ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Elaine Ellis

Due to the fine performances by La Mirada's Elaine Ellis, the race for the 1998 Western Women Professional Bowlers' Rookie of the Year, went unchallenged.

Ellis first came on the WWPB scene in April 1997, when she bowled as a guest, with an eleventh place finish at Canoga Park Bowl.

Upon joining in early March 1998, she bowled in six of the ten scheduled tournaments.

Elaine's first event as a professional was in the Yorba Linda WWPB Open in mid-March. There she qualified fourth, and en route, had a high 5-game block of 1155, with a 300 game thrown in. For the match play finals she finished 15th, averaging 205.62 for the weekend's 26-games.

Her last event was at Vista Entertainment Center in October, as she was unable to participate in our last two tournaments of the year. Again, making the finals by qualifying 14th, and finished in that position.

Elaine also placed herself in the Top-Twenty High Average List, earning additional points for 19th place by averaging 195.43 for 94 games.

A personal hi-lite in her bowling career came on February 20, 1997, at Rossmoor Bowl in league play, when she had games of 299, 300, 187, for a healthy 786 set.

Born in Akron, Ohio, where her dad Bill Baeli, was an avid bowler. The family moved to California, where dad worked in the bowling industry. It was when she was in high school that she started bowling at Premiere Lanes in Santa Fe Springs.

As a teenager, she worked at Taco Bell where she met co-worker, Andy. They now have been married twenty years. Still working together, the forty-year old is the Office Manager for her husband's business.

Winning the title of Rookie of the Year is just the beginning for this talented lady. Her future career with the WWPB looks bright and full of more awards to come.
